

Redundant words

Take the all the unnecessary words out of these without rewriting them:

- 1 Mix the ingredients together until the batter is smooth.
- 2 Competition can be less beneficial than mutual cooperation.
- 3 "And that's a self-portrait of himself, by himself." (Richard Madeley)
- 4 In my personal opinion, caviar tastes horrible.
- 5 "It looks like being a busy weekend on the ferries, particularly Saturday and Sunday."
(Peter Powell)
- 6 Approaching humans is not naturally instinctive behaviour for bears.
- 7 I was never at any time with that woman.
- 8 No, we've never met before.
- 9 "The answer's an affirmative 'yes'." (Nigel Mansell).
- 10 He went to the Catskills with his new bride.
- 11 The sign plainly says: No trespassing allowed.
- 12 ICI's annual report for 1998 states that new developments for 1999 include a proposed extension to the Wilton plant to house a staff restaurant and gym facilities.
- 13 The chairman stated that the company would try and accommodate the wishes of their personnel.
- 14 Two unions at the plant have combined together to make official approaches to the management.
- 15 John and Sheila Smith are celebrating their golden wedding anniversary in style this week – with a cruise around the Caribbean islands.
- 16 Proposals for a new bypass for Hastings first began as long ago as 1967.
- 17 Rio Ferdinand was included among the players on Alex Ferguson's extensive wish-list. Ferguson said that in order to win the European Cup he would need to make new acquisitions. He said his past experience told him that a squad of 18 was simply not big enough to compete on both the domestic and European fronts. United's next European tie is against Bayern Munich at 8pm tomorrow evening.
- 18 Teenager Jo Burt, 19, received an unexpected surprise when a suspected tummy upset turned out to be a tiny baby daughter.

Redundant words

Take the all the unnecessary words out of these without rewriting them:

- 1 Mix the ingredients together until the batter is smooth.
- 2 Competition can be less beneficial than mutual cooperation.
- 3 "And that's a self-portrait of himself, by himself." (Richard Madeley)
- 4 In my personal opinion, caviar tastes horrible.
- 5 "It looks like being a busy weekend on the ferries, particularly Saturday and Sunday." (Peter Powell)
- 6 Approaching humans is not naturally instinctive behaviour for bears.
- 7 I was never at any time with that woman.
- 8 No, we've never met before.
- 9 "The answer's an affirmative 'yes'." (Nigel Mansell)
- 10 He went to the Catskills with his new bride.
- 11 The sign plainly says: No trespassing allowed
- 12 ICI's annual report for 1998 states that new developments for 1999 include a proposed extension to the Wilton plant to house a staff restaurant and gym facilities.
- 13 The chairman stated that the company would try and to accommodate meet the wishes of their personnel staff.
- 14 Two unions at the plant have combined together to make official approaches to the management.
- 15 John and Sheila Smith are celebrating their golden wedding anniversary in style this week – with a cruise around the Caribbean islands.
- 16 Proposals for a new bypass for Hastings first began as long ago as in 1967.
- 17 Rio Ferdinand was included among the players on Alex Ferguson's extensive wish-list. Ferguson said that in order to win the European Cup he would need to make new acquisitions. He said his past experience told him that a squad of 18 was simply not big enough to compete on both the domestic and European fronts. United's next European tie is against Bayern Munich at 8pm tomorrow evening.
- 18 Teenager Jo Burt, 19, received an unexpected surprise when a suspected tummy upset turned out to be a tiny baby daughter.

RED = redundant

BLUE = added